

The Example Of Hur

"Therefore strengthen the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees."
Hebrews 12:12 (New King James Version)

1 Corinthians 16:17,18 - These _____ helped _____ greatly!

What We Know About Hur

A. Speculative information:

1. 1 Chronicles 4:1-4 - Most _____ don't think this man is the _____ as the man we'll study.
2. Josephus said he was the husband of _____; the Targum stated he was the _____ of _____.

B. Exodus 17 - A moment when Hur made a difference:

1. 17:8,9 - When the people of _____ came out to fight, Moses told _____ to choose men to fight, and he would stand on a _____ to watch.
2. 17:10 - _____ and _____ went with Moses to the hill.
3. 17:11,12 - Hur, along with _____, helped to _____ up Moses' _____ so the battle could be _____.
4. 17:13 - It wasn't Joshua's _____, but Moses' _____, that won the battle. Hur made that _____.

C. Exodus 4:1-5; 7:19; 14:16; 17:5,6 - Moses' _____ was powerful but would have been _____ if he hadn't _____ it. Without Hur, it couldn't have happened.

What Does Hur's Example Teach Us?

A. There are other examples of selfless encouragement:

1. John 3:26,29-30 - _____ wasn't bothered by _____'s rising popularity. "He must _____, I must _____."
2. Acts 4:36,37 - "Barnabas" meant _____ of _____.
3. Acts 11:25,26 - If _____ hadn't encouraged _____, would the apostle have made such an impact?

B. Christians are also to be encouragers like Hur:

1. Hebrews 12:12,13 - _____ the _____ that _____ down.
2. Hebrews 13:17 - If we _____ and _____ to those who _____ over us, it will be encouragement to them.
3. 1 Timothy 5:17 - _____ who _____ well should be given _____.

When given encouragement, people could _____ in a _____ of _____ twice as long! (John Maxwell)

Central Church of Christ, Johnson City, TN, December 14, 2008, p.m.