

Great Examples Of Prayer

"Now all these things happened to them as examples, and they were written for our admonition ..." 1 Corinthians 10:11 (New King James Version)

It's much easier to _____ when you have _____ to follow.

Can We Learn To Pray By Studying Examples?

- A. Luke 11:1 - When asked by His _____ to _____ them to pray, Jesus gave "the _____ prayer". We can learn much about praying from this.
- B. Examples, too, can be very helpful:
1. Matthew 22:31,32 - Though _____ spoke to Moses _____ years before Jesus, the words were "spoken to _____". They should have _____ from what was written.
 2. 1 Corinthians 10:11 - Things that happened in the _____ were _____ for our _____.

Some Great Examples Of Prayer

- A. There is a _____ list of _____ in the Bible. If we want to _____ how to _____, this is a good place to begin.
- B. Five examples of great prayers:
1. Psalm 51:1-4 - After _____'s sins, he prays for _____ from God. He shows _____ in confessing sins, and how he has offended _____.
 2. 2 Chronicles 20:5-13 - In a time of great _____, the king, Jehoshaphat, appeals to God for _____. He bases his plea on a _____ God had earlier made.
 3. Luke 22:41,42 - _____ teaches us that _____ prayers must acknowledge the supremacy of _____'s will over our own.
 4. Acts 4:24-31 - When the _____ were _____, the prayed with the other _____ for _____ to do what was right.
 5. Ephesians 3:14-19 - We are reminded here that we should pray for the _____ needs of our _____ (not just their _____ needs).
- C. "A good _____ is like a _____ that calls many to _____." (Danish proverb)

God has _____ that we'll see _____ when we pray!

Central Church of Christ, Johnson City, TN, November 9, 2008, a.m.