

Restoration Focus: Walter Scott

"Simon Peter answered and said, 'You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.'"
Matthew 16:16 (New King James Version)

A Brief Survey Of The Life Of Walter Scott

- A. He was born in _____ in the year _____. He was one of _____ children, and attended the University of _____. In 1818 he moved to _____, and began teaching _____.
- B. When he moved to _____, he met George Forrester, who believed in using only the _____ in religion. After careful study, Scott was _____. He often studied from the _____ New Testament. He soon became acquainted with _____ and began working with him.
- C. In 1827 he preached in New Lisbon, OH, and emphasized _____. William Amend's response made a deep impression on Scott, and he began stressing _____ for the _____ of _____. He developed a _____-_____ exercise.
- D. Other notes:
1. When doing his best, he excelled at _____ as no other.
 2. He was named the first _____ of _____ College.
 3. He had _____ wives; the last often made life difficult for him.

Lessons Learned From Walter Scott's Life

A. The preeminence of Jesus' Messiahship:

1. Matthew 16:15-18 - The fact that Jesus is the _____ is the _____ upon which the _____ was built.
2. John 20:30,31 - The _____ were designed to help us _____ that Jesus is the _____, and thus have _____.
3. Acts 18:28 - Scott was much like _____, who, after being taught, vigorously preached that _____ is the _____.

B. The practical importance of obeying the gospel:

1. The five points Scott stressed were: _____, _____, _____, _____ of _____ and the _____ of the _____.
2. 1 Peter 1:22 - We _____ our _____ by _____ the truth.
3. Galatians 3:1 - Someone kept the Galatians from _____ the _____.
4. Galatians 3:26,27 - There are things we must _____ if we are to _____ on Christ.

Central Church of Christ, Johnson City, TN, August 31, 2008, p.m.